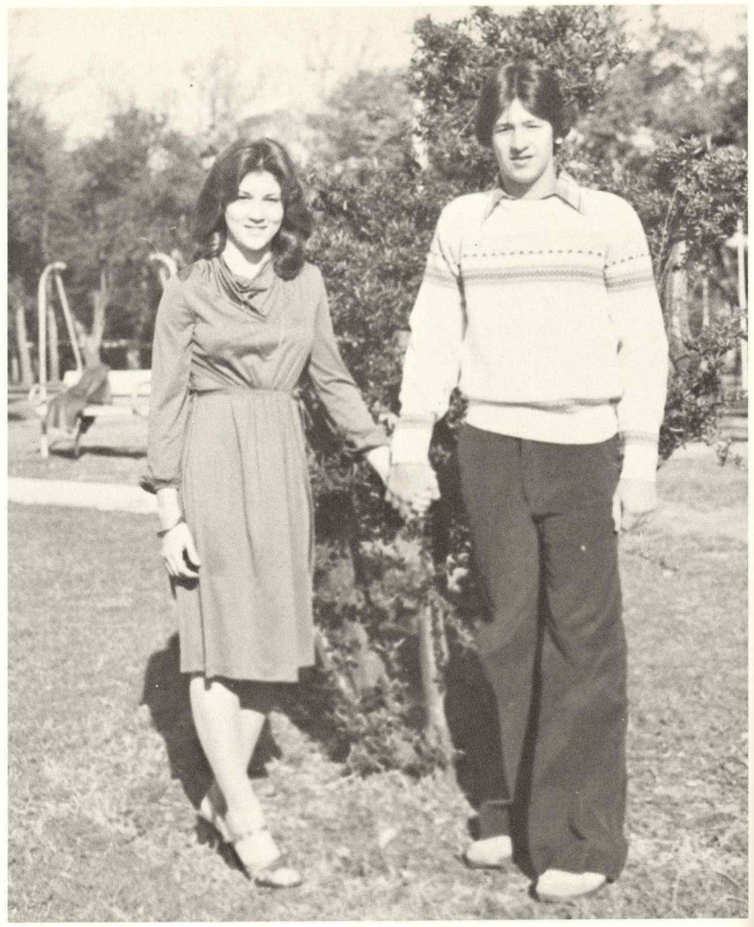
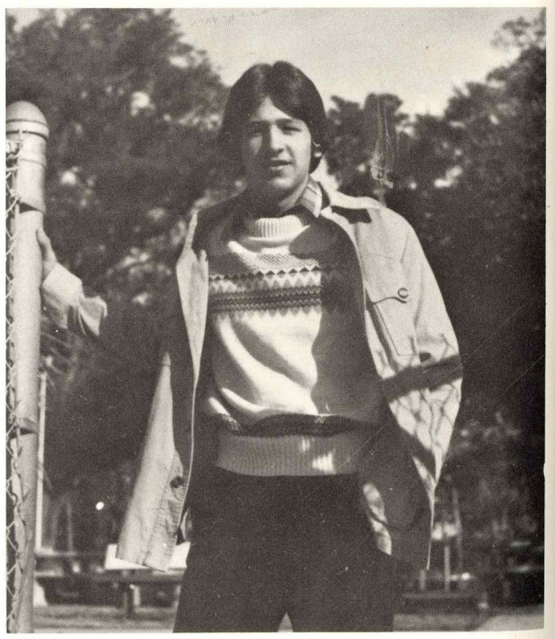
Mr. and Miss PJHS

Randy Haarala, Mr. PJHS, has been active during his years at PJHS. He has played football for three years. He was voted "Most Improved Player" in the seventh grade and "Most Valuable Player" his freshman year. Randy received the American Legion Citizenship Award in the eighth grade. His hobbies are hunting, fishing, and sports.

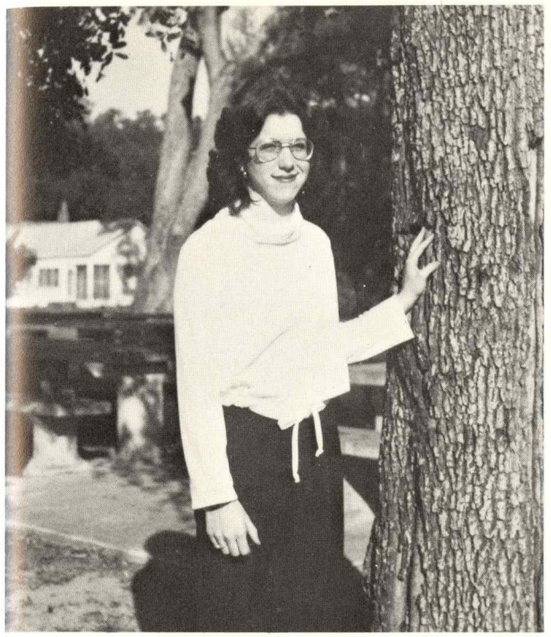
Miss PJHS, Cathy Small, has received many honors during her years at PJHS. She has been chosen by her classmates as a "Class Favorite" and a member of the Pantherpride Court every year she has been at PJHS. Cathy has also been a Cheerleader for three years. This year she was selected as our PJHS Pantherpride Queen.



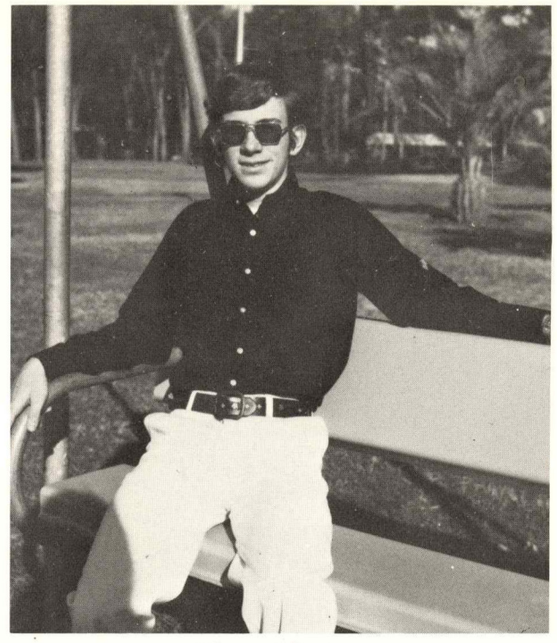
Cathy Small



Randy Haarala



Kathy Linton



Chris Clemens

Most Outstanding

Chris Clemens was chosen "Most Outstanding" by the faculty of PJHS. Not only did he make excellent grades throughout his years at PJHS, he was also active in school activities. Chris was a member of the Annual Staff and Beta Club, and also a band captain. He lists his hobbies as music and soccer.

Kathy Linton is an outstanding student in every sense of the word. Even though she is deaf she made excellent grades and was involved in many activities. She is presently learning to speak in her speech therapy classes. Kathy was a library monitor and an active member of her church. Her hobbies are swimming, drawing, and sewing.
